PLEASANTON STUDENTS ADVANCE TO STATE LEVEL IN PTA REFLECTIONS ARTS PROGRAM

Pleasanton, CA: Six Pleasanton students have had their works of art chosen to advance to the California State PTA level in the Reflections Program. Reflections is a national PTA arts enhancement program held annually. The 2009-10 theme is "Beauty is...". The Pleasanton PTA Council Reflections Recognition Ceremony was held December 2nd at Harvest Park Middle School. The work of seventeen students was chosen to represent Pleasanton and advance to next level at the Peralta PTA District, comprising all of Alameda County. On January 19th, Peralta PTA District chose twenty entries to advance to the state level; six of which were from Pleasanton!

Congratulations to the six Pleasanton students who artistic creations are advancing to the State level:

Category	School	Division
Literature
Calla Li	Mohr Elementary	Intermediate
Christine Xu	Harvest Park Middle School	Middle/Jr.
Visual Arts
Jenny Shin	Harvest Park Middle School	Middle/Jr.
Haley Guilfoile	Amador Valley High School	Senior
Musical Composition
Brendan Hwang	Hearst Elementary	Intermediate
Dance Choreography
Amy Tilson-Lumetta	Amador Valley High School	Senior

Should any of these students be named award winners by the State PTA and advance to the National level, their work will be presented at the California State PTA Convention in early May.

The Pleasanton PTA Council began in 2003 as an umbrella group for all PTAs in Pleasanton. The mission of the PTA is to represent their members and to empower and support them with skills in advocacy, leadership, and communication to positively impact the lives of all children and families.
